Press questions:

The following questions are intended for print and broadcast journalists in connection with interviews with Fire Pink Trio. These topics are designed to facilitate conversation with them and will make for a fascinating interview:

1. Tell me about how you selected the name for the trio.
2. How did the three of you come together as a group?
3. Tell me about the repertoire you perform. Are there any composers that you'd like to commission that would be a sort of dream project for you?
4. Talk about your interest in music by jazz composers such as Lyle Mays.
5. Jacquelyn, you studied with some of the great harpists of the 20th century. Tell us about them.
6. Sheila, tell us about some of the people you've performed chamber music with over the years.
7. Debra, the flute world can be very crowded, but you've been prominent in it. How do you manage this?
8. Given your diverse experiences, how is it working together?
9. How are you responding to the changing face of classical music in the 21st century?
10. What does the future hold for Fire Pink Trio?
